

EQUIP TO ENGAGE

Quality, Affordable, Local Leadership Development for Children's Leaders

Welcome to Month-in-a-Glance!

We hope this will be a helpful tool for you to know what's coming from Equip to Engage. You'll find resource spotlights, dates for the coming month and the next month, and details about what's coming.

Here we are almost to Fall! Some of you are in the full swing of Fall ministry and others of you are just about to start. The past few months have been long, but when I look back they've gone quickly. I know for some of you the end was in sight and now there have been recent setbacks. I know for some of you the new "normal" is being established. These have been challenging days, but I hope when you stop and look back that you can see how God has moved. I pray that God is using you to be the Light to your world.
